

Guide Kelvin Mkandawire

We're proud to introduce Kelvin Mkandawire, one of our expert local guides who leads birding safaris with Birding Zambia.

Kelvin has dedicated many years to bird conservation and research in Zambia through his work with BirdWatch Zambia. When he's guiding for Birding Zambia, he brings that same wealth of field experience, knowledge, and enthusiasm to every safari. His passion for Zambia's remarkable birdlife, combined with his sharp identification skills and friendly nature, makes every outing both rewarding and memorable.

To learn more about the important conservation work carried out by BirdWatch Zambia, please visit the BirdWatch Zambia website www.birdwatchzambia.org.

We are proud to support their efforts by donating a percentage of every Birding Zambia booking to this vital conservation NGO.

Join Kelvin on a Birding Zambia safari and discover the country's extraordinary avian diversity through the eyes of a truly dedicated guide.
